RICHARD I. MANNING
In Second Race With Blease for Governor

Detailed Summary Of The Vote in the County

The election on Tuesday passed off very quietly and the returns are slow in coming in. It may be due to the large number of candidates in the various county positions to be filled.

The latest returns on Thursday accounted for about 125,000 votes and that includes about the total vote cast.

There seems to be no doubt that the second race will be between Blease and Manning, though Blease seems to have pretty nearly a majority over all the candidates on the first running. According to the figures in the daily papers he lacks only about 20,000 votes of a majority over all the candidates for governor. It is a remarkable race that he has made. The News and Courier gives the figures in the governor's race as follows:

Blease, 56,629; Cooper, 28,301; Manning, 37,094. A phone message Thursday afternoon from Columbia gave Blease about 61,000, Manning 38,000; Cooper 28,000. These figures still give Blease a lead of about 20,000 or more.

Bethea is elected lieutenant governor; Carter treasurer; Dove secretary of State; a second race between Cansler and Fant for railroad commissioner.

Byrnes, Lever, Nicholls, Whaley, and Ragsdale reelected to congress in the third district a second race for congress between Aiken and Dominick with Dominick in the lead.

The race for in this circuit a second race will be run by Magill and Blackwell.

Cooper admits his defeat and comes out for Manning for governor. He says that he knows that he will not influence those who supported him but feels that it is his duty to say so he stands.

The State of Thursday makes an appeal to partisanship and draws the lines, or tries to do so, in the governor's race. That will cut both ways. Some time back that sort of thing was frowned upon by The State and we are sorry to see the effort made to stir up partisanship and draw factional lines. It will scarcely work at this late hour.

It would be very remarkable if Blease should not win with the large lead that he has.

It has been difficult to get the returns for some reason. The official return in Newberry gives Blease 15,777; Cooper 334; Deschamps 3; Duncan 6; Manning 1272. The daily papers or rather The State and News and Courier have for two days been publishing figures giving Manning a lead in Newberry county. This makes a total in this race of 3,242 of which 1,673 would be a majority. So Blease lacks only 46 votes of a majority of all the candidates for governor in Newberry.

The table which The Herald and News prints is substantially correct but some of the totals are not correct. We did not get the report from the executive committee in time to make the changes but give here the totals in several of the races as declared by the committee which includes the vote at the border by the soldier boys.

To The Voters of Newberry County.
It appears from the returns that I have been nominated for the third time in the Democratic Primary for County Commissioner. I wish to take my hat off to my friends who have thus again so loyally stood by me. I wish especially to thank my friends at the cotton mills for the big vote which they gave me. I shall continue to serve the best interests of my county as faithfully in the future as I have in the past.
Respectfully,
L. Charlton Livingston.

A very delightful affair of the week was the picnic and straw ride given by the younger social set on Monday evening. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. H. H. Blease and Miss Gladys Chappell. After a delightful ride over town the happy bunch enjoyed a picnic dinner at the park. The party included about twenty-five couples.

Mr. Stone, the insurance agent who has made a reputation traveling over the state making political predictions, is in Newberry. He says Blease will beat Manning in the second race.

Service at Central Methodist church Sunday morning will be conducted by the Rev. W. I. Herbert, presiding elder, Cokesbury district. The pastor, Rev. F. E. Dibble, will preach at night.

Rev. and Mrs. F. E. Dibble returned yesterday from their trip to Washington. Their friends are very glad to see them in Newberry after their missed absence.

Col. C. J. Purcell's many friends are pleased to see him out again after his lay-up from his recent serious accident.

VNDAC
Mr. E. H. Cousins and family have moved to corner of Harrington and Hunt.

Card of Thanks.
I desire to thank my friends for the handsome vote given me Tuesday and ask them to remember me again in the second primary. Read 14 Chapter of first Corinthians, verses 34 and 35.
J. Wm. Folk.
